Qualifying programs:

- UH Maui College: Majors
  - Hawaiian Studies/Language
  - STEM and STEM-related:
    - Agriculture and Natural Resources
      - Cultural and Natural Resource Management
      - Horticulture and Landscape Maintenance
      - Nursery Management
      - Sustainable Tropical Crop Management
    - Allied Health
      - Dental Hygiene
      - Practical Nurse
      - Registered Nurse
    - Electronic and Computer Engineering Technology
    - Natural Science
    - Business Careers Option (3) III and (4) IV
    - Applied Business and Information Technology (BAS)
    - Engineering Technology (BAS)
    - Sustainable Science Management (BAS)

- UH Maui College: Liberal Arts Majors\(^2\)

  Students must show significant interest in Hawaiian Studies, STEM and STEM-related majors/career

Transfer option:

- Hawaiian Studies and STEM major(s)/degree(s) at other accredited universities, including but not limited to the University of Hawaii system, meet the academic major requirement for the program.\(^3\)

\(^1\) Students must be pursuing a STEM, STEM-related, or Hawaiian Studies major and following the academic plan created by the program counselor

\(^2\) Minimum of one (1) program approved math or science course per semester

\(^3\) Students who have graduated from a Maui high school and/or completed prerequisites/general education requirements at UHMC will be given preference

Funded by the National Science Foundation: Daniel K. Inouye Solar Telescope Mitigation Initiative